The Late Lord Lyons.

As stated in the GAZETTE, Lord Lyons, who recently had a stroke of paralysis in Paris and was removed to London, died yesterday. Lord Lyone' official career had extended over lifty years, when a few weeks ago he withdrew from his post as ambassador at Paris and was creased an carl. He was born at Lymington in 1817, and in 1858 Coughs. Colds. Bronchitis, Sore Throat. Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough Difficulty of Breathing, Pains and Tightness of the Chest, Dryness or Tickling in the Throat. &c.

Absolutely free from substances injurious to health. Small (3 oz.) bottles 25 cts; large (8 oz.) bottles, 50 cts. For sale by all druggists. The sale from the substances injurious to health. Small (3 oz.) bottles 25 cts; large (8 oz.) bottles 50 cts. succeeded to the title of his father, the first years later secretary of legation, though he resided at Rome. In December, 1858, he was accredited as envoy extraordinary to the United States, and remained until illhealth compelled him, in February, 1865, to icave Washington, then a very unhealthy city. A few weeks' residence in Europe resumed his health, and a few months later he was appointed ambassador at Constantinople, and transferred in 1867 to Paris, where he remained until recently. He was made a K. C. B. in 1860, a G. C. B. in 1862; was sworn of the Privy Council in 1865, and made an honorary D. C. L. at Oxford the same year. In 1881 he was created Viscount Lyons of Christ Church, in the county of Southampton. He was always noted for his count ty of Southampton. for his tact, foresight and industry, and his nobility of character ensured him great social influence wherever he went. "Great and deserved paise," said the London Daily

News a few weeks zgo, "has been accorded to Mr. Charles Francis Adams, who was United States minister in this country during the American civil war, for the tact, discretion, and adroitness displayed by him at a time when a mere trifle might have sufficed to set England and the Washington Government by the ears. It would, however, be the height of injustice to exclude Lord Lyons from the commendation which is equally his due for the ability, foresight and sagaci-ty with which he conducted the delicate negotiations entrusted to his care at Washington between the end of 1860 and the end of 1864. Those who have had opportunities for studying the singular and many-sided character of Wm. Seward, Secretary of State under President Lincoln, will best ap preciate the benefits conferred by Lord Lyone upon his compatriots during the many embittered controversies to which the seiz-ure on board a British vessel of Messrs. Mason and Slidell, diplomatic agents of the Confederate States, by Capt. Wilkes, of the United States navy, and other imbroglios of a like kind, gave rise. Lord Lyons undoubtedly deserves well of his country for manifold services rendered to her during the last half century; but never were his more efficiently displayed than at Washing-ton during the stormy and anxious years that he passed there after the election of Abraham Lincoln to the presidency. During his long career in Paris he played a most important part in European politics, and won general admiration and esteem by his fidelity to duty, his incorruptibility, his shrewdnes and his fine tact. The British embassy under his charge was not the scene of as many brilliant entertainments as it had been in other days, and is likely to be again under the rule of Lord Lytton, but the so-cial standing of Lord Lyons was the highest possible, and his resignation was a matter of sincere regret not only to his many French friends, but to the whole diplomatic corps in Paris. Lord Lyons was never married, and his title of viscount dies with him. A short time before his death he was received into the Roman Catholic

FREEDMAN'S VILLAGE MUST GO .- The Secretary of War has issued an order requiring all the inhabitants of Freedman's Village, located on the Fort Meyer military reservation, in this county as well as anyone else who is living within the reservation limits to remove within thirty days. The immediate cause of the order was the complaint of the superintendent of Arlington Cemetery that some of the colored inhabitants of the village were in the habit or cutting down trees in the cemetery, and the depredations had continued for some time. It was impossible to gnard the entire cemetery, and difficult to detect the thieves who sawed the trees to avoid noise.
